This Chronicle sheet grants access to the following:

Aid of the Overwached (Dark Archive): You returned Ralzeros the Overwached to Golarion and convinced him to lend his aid to the Dark Archive. In thanks for your help, Ralzeros convinces his familiar Daosvaria to send a piece of her essence and knowledge to assist you. This aid can take one of two forms.

A chaotic spellcaster of at least 7th level can take Daosvaria as a familiar with the Improved Familiar feat. She uses the standard statistics of a wyrmling nightmare dragon, except that her alignment is chaotic neutral, she does not have the see in darkness ability, her Strength score is 10. She has the feats Improved Initiative and Multiattack and three ranks in each of the following skills: Fly, Knowledge (arcana, engineering, and planes), Perception, and Stealth. She qualifies for magic item slots in the biped (hands) category and can use spell trigger and spell completion magic items. If you make this bond with Daosvaria, you must provide a copy of Pathfinder RPG Bestiary 5 as if the improved familiar were granted by the Additional Resources list. Daosvaria may qualify for the figment familiar archetype (Pathfinder RPG Familiar Folio 10, Pathfinder RPG Ultimate Wilderness 211) as if she had speak with animals of its kind, trading out dragon senses for darkvision 60 ft. and the manifest dreams ability.

☐ Instead of taking Daosvaria as a familiar, you can call her forth to share fragments of Ralzeros's knowledge. Check a box that precedes this boon to roll a single Knowledge check using a bonus of 5 plus your character level in place of your typical bonus. If your own bonus is higher, you may instead gain a +2 bonus on the Knowledge check. If you use this benefit, cross the option to take Daosvaria as a familiar off your Chronicle sheet.

Cautious Curator (Dark Archive): You destroyed the remnants of Ralzeros the Overwached, and in so doing removed a link to the Dark Tapestry. If you have the boon Scrutiny of the Stars from Pathfinder Society Scenario #5-16: Sanctum of the Sages, cross that boon off your Chronicle sheet. You may cross this boon off your Chronicle sheet to reroll a failed saving throw against a mind-affecting effect or an effect that results from exposure to dangerous knowledge or writing.

Staff of the Overwached (aura moderate divination; CL 9th; Weight 10 lbs.): This black basalt staff twists into irregular geometric patterns. Its structure channels the power of sacred geometry to protect its wielder, granting her some concealment against ranged attacks (a 10% miss chance). While this staff was once one of Ralzeros's treasures, the influence of Corners of Spheres has sealed much of its potential. The staff allows the use of the following spells.

- identify (1 charge)
- twisted space (2 charges; Pathfinder RPG Ultimate Combat 248)

You can purify the staff between adventures, unlocking the abilities below.

☐ Augment the staff's protective abilities, increasing the 10% miss chance against ranged attacks to 20%, by paying 6,000 gp.

☐ Augment the staff's magical abilities, adding the following spells to the staff and reducing the cost of using twisted space to 1 charge. This upgrade costs 8,000 gp.

- wandering star motes (2 charges; Pathfinder RPG Advanced Player's Guide 355)
- hold portal (1 charge)

☐ If you have already performed the spell upgrade above, you can pay a further 8,000 gp to add the following spells.

- prying eyes (2 charges)
- stone shape (2 charges)
