If Zamir is coerced into joining the Pathfinder Society:

Venture-Captain Mihir presents you with a copper coin that has the sigil of the open road on one side and the flag of Jalmeray on the other. When in Absalom or any major city (more than 5,000 residents) in Andoran, Cheliax, Jalmeray, Osirion, Qadira, or Taldor, you can present this coin to any citizen of Jalmeray (it takes 1d4 hours to locate one) and receive a +4 circumstance bonus on any one Appraise, Diplomacy, or Knowledge (any) skill check. You may only use this coin once per scenario.

If Zamir is slain:

The Thakur of Jalmeray recognizes the great service you have done for his country and spreads the word of your deeds to the corners of the island. In any future encounter when dealing with a citizen of Jalmeray, you may gain a +1 circumstance bonus to any Diplomacy rolls made during that encounter. You may only use this bonus once per scenario.
