QUESTIONNAIRE

My best friend is _____.

The one grown-up I can trust is _____.

Once I lost my Orix Buffaloes cap.

It was special because uncle Noboru Watanabe got it for me, when I was 7.

The one place monsters can't get me is the big maple in the yard.

The one thing monsters can't touch is my bike.

I don't go near peanuts because they can make my throat close up.

My biggest fear is that I can't live up to my friends' standards. That, and wasps. Well, OK -- a peanut-butter sandwich crawling with wasps, that my friends all expect me to eat.

The thing I like least about myself is I'm sometimes mean.

The thing that always gets me into trouble is I like to go just a little further.

When monsters are around, I am less afraid of the monster than looking scared.

My Family is Japanese. I moved here with mom and dad when I was four, when my dad got a job testing computer chips. We have to renew our visas every half year, and I am worried that they won't let us stay. My brother, Sato, is one year younger than me. We live in a house that is too big for us, with our cat Meeko. Neither mom nor dad act American, and my mom doesn't like it here.
