This Chronicle sheet grants access to the following:

Mythic Pathfinder: You have received the blessing of the Ruby Sage, who granted you some of her power so that you might retrieve the stolen sage jewels and find the Diamond Sage. When you begin Pathfinder Society Scenario #5-16: Destiny of the Sands, Part 3: Sactum of the Sages, you gain the following abilities for the duration of the scenario. Alternatively, as long as you have a copy of Pathfinder RPG Mythic Adventures, you may apply 3 mythic tiers to your character when playing that scenario; all character options in Chapters 1, 2, and 3 are legal for play, as are the character options in Pathfinder Player Companion: Mythic Origins.

Mythic: You are considered a mythic creature, which may affect how some spells and abilities affect you.

Ability Score: Increase an ability score of your choice by 2.

Exceptional Deeds: You gain two special abilities from the Mythic Power 2 Chronicle sheet.

Hit Points: You gain 12 hit points.

Hard to Kill (Ex): Whenever you're below 0 hit points, you automatically stabilize without needing to attempt a Constitution check. If you have an ability that allows you to act while below 0 hit points, you still lose hit points for taking actions, as specified by that ability. Bleed damage still causes you to lose hit points when you fall below 0 hit points. In addition, you don't die until your total number of negative hit points is equal to or greater than double your Constitution score.

Mythic Power (Su): You can draw upon a wellspring of power to accomplish amazing deeds and cheat fate. This power is used by a number of different abilities. Each day, you have nine uses of mythic power. If an ability allows you to regain uses of your mythic power, you can never have more than this amount.

Surge (Su): You can call upon your mythic power to overcome difficult challenges. You can expend one use of mythic power to increase any d20 roll you just made by rolling 1d6+1 twice and adding the higher roll to the result. Using this ability is an immediate action taken after the result of the original roll is revealed. This can change the outcome of the roll.

Amazing Initiative (Ex): You gain a +3 bonus on initiative checks. In addition, as a free action on your turn, you can expend one use of mythic power to take an additional standard action during that turn. This additional standard action can't be used to cast a spell, and you can't gain an extra action in this way more than once per round.

Recuperation (Ex): You are restored to full hit points after 8 hours of rest as long as you aren't dead. In addition, by expending one use of mythic power and resting for 1 hour, you regain a number of hit points equal to half your full hit points (up to a maximum of your full hit points) and regain the use of any class features that are limited to a certain number of uses per day (such as barbarian rage, bardic performance, spells per day, and so on). This rest is treated as 8 hours of sleep for such abilities. This rest doesn't refresh uses of mythic power or any mythic abilities that are limited to a number of times per day.
