This Chronicle sheet grants access to the following:

- Clockwork Insight: Your time in the temple of Brigh has given you insight into complicated mechanisms. You can check a box that precedes this boon as a part of attempting a Disable Device check to disarm a trap to roll 1d6 and add the result to the result of your Disable Device check. You can instead check a box to grant yourself the ability to attempt a single Disable Device check against a magical trap, even if you would not normally be able to do so. Alternatively, you can check a box when a trap triggers to add 1d6 to your AC or on your saving throw against the trap. When you check the last box, cross this boon off your Chronicle sheet.
- Earth Affinity: Your connection to elemental earth has grown stronger over the course of your recent adventures. This boon has no mechanical effect on its own, but it may interact with other boons or play a role in future adventures—especially those set on the Elemental Planes.
- Grave Treader's Inspiration: Grave Treader shared some of her wisdom and knowledge with you, which you can apply at opportune moments. You can check a box that precedes this boon to use inspiration, as per the investigator ability (Pathfinder RPG Advanced Class Guide 31). If you already have inspiration, you can check a box to increase your inspiration die by one step (from 1d6 to 1d8, or 1d8 to 1d10) for one roll.
